9 or less teams – sponsor plaque only

3rd PLACE: Sponsor's plaque

MVP PLAQUES: MALE AND FEMALE – Highest average. In order to qualify, a player must play 2/3 of the season. The season will consist of the number of games available for an individual to play. Bye week games will not be considered as games available to play.

You must play 2/3 of the season to qualify for awards. The season will consist of the total number of games available for an individual to play. Bye weeks will not be counted as playable games.

15 game round robin format. Players are to be positioned lowest to highest average. New players without an average must be placed in the 3rd position. If there are two (2) new players they are placed in the 2nd and 4th positions.

HANDICAP: 3 points per player, maximum of 15 per round.

The Sunday league will carry over averages from last season for the first 4 weeks of play. You must have played at least 4 weeks to carry over an average. New players entering the league will figure their averages that evening and put in the necessary handicap.

ROSTER: 10 players Maximum. Teams can add at will until they reach 10 players. After the roster is full, if the secretary is not notified about a player drop at least one week prior to the match, the roster is considered full and ¾ of the captains must be contacted up until match time for approval of a new player. A player is not on a roster until they shoot.

FLOATING SUBS will be allowed. But each sub MUST be willing if able to play for anyone.

NO NEW PLAYERS THE LAST FOUR (4) WEEKS.

If there is a BYE it will be a no-pay, no points week.

At Regional time, teams must try to work with each other to get their games played. If a team is still in the tournament on Sunday, the league games cannot be forfeited. If it is just one player, please try and use your subs.

Protest fee is $10.00 per VNEA rule book procedure.

The team captain or team rep must attend each captain's meeting or lose 1 winning round point. The meetings will be at 4:30 p.m.
